Hello! Hello! Is this the Red House? Yes, what can we do for you! Have you any of those fine ladies' shoes No. 4, "A"? Yes, and we are selling all our shoes at prices you can not duplicate in the east. We pay the freight. Our Mr. Vasquez does all the buying and our shoes sell them selves.

THE VIDETTE was in error last week when it mentioned that Mr. Fred Sterling was superintendent of bridges. Mr. Sterling is not superintendent of bridges, but foreman of a bridge gang on the N. M. & A. railway. Foreman Sterling is now at the second bridge doing work on the concrete abutments. We take pleasure in making the above correction for Mr. Sterling and promise to sin no more.

Spring is at hand and you no doubt are in need of light weight underwear. It will not cost you one cent to step into the Red House and inspect their big stock of spring and summer wear. Perhaps you do not know that the Red House carries the largest line of these things in the city. The goods and prices will astonish you.

W. H. Bonham, special agent of The Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, is stopping at the Montezuma. The new policy with its large cash and loan value is attracting a great deal of attention, and back as it is by assets of over $277,000,000 is certainly a very desirable investment.

The Red House is always abreast of the times. It never takes chances on being too late. Mr. Vasquez has taken time by the forelock and has purchased a large up-to-date line of spring and summer dress goods which he is selling at eastern prices. Why not patronize your home people instead of sending out of town for articles you can buy for the same money.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Jas. B. Mix & Co., Drug Store.

Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Luis Chavez, E. A. Shepard's murderer in jail.

Luis Chavez, the accused murderer of E. A. Shepard, a foreman on the N. M. & A. railway, was captured at Lechiel last Monday morning by deputy sheriff Harry Harrison and U. S. Customs Inspector Capt. Hathaway, who brought their man to Nogales and turned him over to Sheriff Barnett.

The preliminary hearing took place in Justice Duffy's court on Wednesday and the prisoner was bound over without bail.

There is not the slightest doubt as to the identity of the prisoner, who was identified by a number of fellow-workers who knew him and were eyewitnesses to the cutting which caused Shepard's death.

The story of the killing was told in THE VIDETTE when it occurred and from the evidence given at the preliminary trial Wednesday it was a true account.

On the morning of December 12, last, Mr. Shepard, who was foreman of a fence building gang, had some trouble with one Luis Chavez a laborer, who asked for his discharge and fifty cents due him for labor. Mr. Shepard gave him his time check and said he had no money with which to pay—that not being his business. Chavez then told the foreman that if he did not pay him then and there he (Shepard) would never leave the camp. The foreman was in his car at the time and Chavez was at the door and tried to get into the car. Shepard again told the man he could not pay that which he did not have and attempted to jump from his car when Chavez stabbed him in the side with a big knife which he had concealed under his blanket. Mr. Shepard was placed on a hand car and taken to Crittenden where he died at 6:10 o'clock in the evening.

The murderer made straight for the international line and escaped the officers who were in pursuit. Some time ago he was seen at Lechiel on the Mexican side of the border by Captain Hathaway of the U. S. customs service and deputy sheriff Harry Harrison, and last Monday morning they saw Chavez cross the line and enter a Chinese store. This was what the officers had been waiting for and no time was lost in surrounding the place. Capt. Hathaway stationed himself at the front door and when Chavez came out he was covered and told in Spanish to throw up his hands, which command he did not obey, but continued to advance toward the officer. Then the captain commanded him in English to put up his hands or take the consequences. While the negro was not willing to throw up his hands he dropped on both knees and submitted to having the bracelets put on. The officers brought their man to Nogales and as has been stated above he was given a preliminary hearing and held to await the action of the grand jury.

The evidence produced at the trial Wednesday was sufficient to hang a dozen men and it is only a matter of time when Luis Chavez will pay the penalty of his awful crime and poor Shepard will be avenged.

Assistant Manager Naugle, Superintendent Montague, and in fact all the officials of the railroad as well as their employes deserve great credit for the interest they are taking in convicting the murderer of Shepard.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

Scott's Emulsion

You will find it just as useful in summer as in winter, and if you are thriving upon it don't stop because the weather is warm.
